G. W. U. STUDENTS TO MASQUERADE
AT MAY CARNIVAL

Many Features Planned
For May 3 Affair
In Arcade

Arrangements are practically completed for George Washington University annual May masque carnival, to be held at the Arcade, Fourteenth and Park road, on the evening of Tuesday, May 3. The carnival will combine the annual masquerade of the university student council and of the freshman and senior classes.

The masquerade carnival will be an event the university and its students intend to make it a yearly feature. Many unique stunts are being planned by the committee in charge, which is composed of Bryan Wood, president of the student council and representatives of the student council, the freshman and senior classes of Columbian College, the university law school, and the medical school.

Two orchestras will furnish continuous music from 9 until 2:30 the next morning, with intermissions only long enough for vaudeville acts offered by students.

Funds derived from the carnival will be used to defray expenses incurred by student activities and to meet the needs of the university organizations. Any surplus will be added to the university's gymnasium fund.

The carnival is composed of Earl Sherrill, president of the senior class, Columbian College, chairman; Earl Manson, president of the freshman class, Columbian College; Miss Lois McCaris, of the law school; John Paul Foster, of the junior class, Columbian College; and Miss Hagan Houston, Columbian College.

The chairmen of subcommittees follow: Thomas Lodge, law school, chairman of the student council; Arrangements; Miss McCaris, tickets; Mr. Hagan, publicity, and Miss Houston, prizes.

Others on the various committees are Miss Martha Waring, Emmett Doherty, Miss Vivian Bradley, David Clark, J. Fuller Spencer, Alec Prescott, Miss Ethel Johnson, Clarence Owens, Edward Brown, Miss Martha Dunham, John Daily, Alfred Powell, Howard Espey, Walter Scott, Sam Rogers, Sam Dodeck, Granville Dickey, Charles Foley, Eugene Thomas, Winifred De Vo, Miss Olive Prescott, Richard Vidmer, William Smithwick, Maxine Hale, James Duggan and Miss Helen Haddon.

The juniors of the law school gave a class party recently at the law school, 1435 K street, northwest. The Ypsilon Chi chapter of the class social committee, was in charge of arrangements. Jazz music for dancing was furnished by a colored orchestra.

The Phi Kappa Psi Association of the university gave its annual scholarship luncheon recently at the Lafayette Hotel. Each secretary sent its senior Pan Hellenic delegate. The delegates were crowned with the highest scholastic standing.

Among those present were: Pi Beta Phi—Martha Waring, Elizabeth Earnest and Marjory Ludlow; Chi Omega—Elizabeth Waring, Elizabeth and Barbara Hildreth, Sigma Kappa—Rosemary Arnold, Helen Hosford and Maxine Ralle; Pi Mu, Evelyn and Elizabeth Waring; Phi Kappa McGavin; Theta Lambda—Margaret Egan Judd, Wanda Castle and Helen Newton; Coalition Club—Dorothy Johnson, Fred Woodson and Mary Bradley.

The delegates from Columbian College were: Mary Bradley, senior,

Mrs. Adele Markley, junior; Catherine Chapman, sophomore, and Ann Hays, freshman, of Washington Teachers' College were: Mrs. H. J. Hyman, senior; Alice Fowler, junior, and Adeline Staley, freshman. Mrs. Hays was the author of the Dean Wilbur, of Columbia College, was the guest of honor.

Prof. Paul Bartsch, of the department of botany at the university, recently addressed the annual meeting of the Chapter of the Wild Flower Preservation Society of America on "Leaves." He distributed mimeographed sheets showing the different shapes of leaves and leaf sculpture.

Lambda chapter of Phi Sigma Kappa recently celebrated the fortieth anniversary of the founding of the fraternity at a banquet at the Lafayette Hotel. More than 100 active and alumni members were present.

Gilbert Bartsch, recorder of the supreme court of the fraternity, spoke on co-operation between and Mrs. H. Choate, assistant secretary of the Federal Trade Commission, told of the advantages of a government career. Walter Brandes, of the council of the fraternity, explained plans for the next biennial convention in 1922, which Lambda chapter will be the host.

Alhambra

On next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at Rauscher's the re-enactment of Alcantara Caravan of the Order of the Alhambra will be completed. The caravan will stage the biggest ceremonial in its history. Grand Commander Philip Buttner and his faithful nobles, accompanied by many novices, will start the Caravan for its journey over the sands to Mecca. Nothing has been left undone to make this journey a mem-orahone. Many new and unusual stunts and effects are promised.

O. G. Smith has prepared to meet the weary. A banquet will be served following the initiation.
Many Sir Nobles from Acala Caravan,
Van Biltmore, and other Caravans are expected.
